Juror Terri Warpinski:

Terri Warpinski has been exhibiting nationally since 1979, and is represented in many public, corporate and private collections. Her work has been published in Northern Lights, Many Mountains Moving, Northwest Review, and Edging West. She lives in Eugene, Oregon, where she is a Professor of Art. Warpinski has been at the UO for 25 years and is a former Associate Dean of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts, and most recently was the institution's Vice Provost for Academic Affairs and Community and Engagement. In addition to university-level coursework, Warpinski teaches workshops, most addressing the landscape as subject and/or alternative photographic processes. She has led field courses to the area surrounding the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge for 20 years, initiated a program in the northern Italian village of Oira in 2005, and taught a multi-national field course centered on the Arava Desert of Israel during her Fulbright residence. Warpinski was on the national board of directors for the Society for Photographic Education from 2000 to 2008 during which time she served as the national chairperson of the society from 2003 to 2007. She was the Chair of their 2005 National Conference in Portland, Oregon, which featured keynote speaker award-winning author Barry Holstun Lopez, and artists Mark Klett and Michael Kenna. Linda Connor was the honored educator. In 2008 she Co-Chaired the national conference in Dallas, Texas with Professor Margaret Stratton of the University of Iowa.
